To the Members of the School Board,

ENFIELD, N. H.

GENTLEMEN:—

The present annual report of your superintendent must of necessity be brief owing to a very brief acquaintance with your schools. The statistical tables which accompany this show many interesting facts about them in both the past and the present years, and the financial report will give costs of operation.

I have found in operation a plan of maintenance of school property which is founded on a sound policy and which should be continued,—the improvement and repair of some school building each year. The George Hill school is a fine example of a well equipped and well taught rural school. The pains taken to repair the physical property have made it a first class building in which to carry on a school and the work of the present teacher is in keeping with its appearance of progress. This year the East Hill school has received attention in painting and shingling. Further inside repairs are much needed here. During the coming summer it is to be recommended that further expenditure be made on other schools.

The heating equipment at the Village school is unsatisfactory, as is most generally the type of plant which has been here installed. If a steam plant of modern type could be installed in this building there is no doubt but that it would save its own cost in fuel in the next few years besides giving much more satisfaction in operation. Roughly speaking the fuel cost during the present winter has been about $40. per week in this building. A saving of ten tons of coal each winter, or its equivalent in wood, would rapidly save the cost of the new heating plant, and the building should be properly heated by steam with not over thirty tons of coal per winter. A heater, burning either soft or hard coal should be installed.

A new hard wood floor has been laid during the last summer in the primary room at Enfield Center.

It will be seen by referring to the table giving the enrollment in September that we have a serious problem of overcrowding in the primary room of the village school. Fifty-nine pupils were enrolled in this school, which could not seat over forty. To provide for temporary accommodations during the present school year what is known as the "platoon system" was resorted to, i e. one group of pupils come in the morning and another group in the afternoon, both groups using the same room. Both groups have also been taught by the same teacher, Miss Biathrow very willingly offering to take upon herself the double work. This arrangement cannot continue another year in fairness to both teacher and pupils. Another teacher will need to be added to the present number and a separate room should be provided. If no other way can be found two teachers will have to use the same room, one in the morning the other in the afternoon. It is expected that the enrollment in this room next year will be fully equal to that of the present year.

The enrollment in the room occupied by the fifth and sixth grades in this same building is high, all possible space being now occupied by seats.

In the high school the enrollment fills the school room space. The alteration of this room during the summer, which enlarged the main high school room by moving the front wall so as to include some of the corridor space in the room has provided much needed seating space. Further increase in high school enrollment is expected next year. It will be seen from the enrollment table that eighteen pupils are preparing for high school in the eight grade. Add to this a possible increase from out of town of four or five. and allowing for graduation of the senior class and the dropping out of some who will not enter the high school and it will be foreseen that a substantial further increase in the number of pupils in high school may be expected. Accommodations will have to be provided for these pupils.

Increase in enrollment all over New Hampshire is caused in late years not so much by increase in population as by the increasing number of pupils who are recognizing that a high school education is necessary for the best success in life. A high school education is demanded by employers who engage young men to train for positions of any sort of responsibility in their business.

I am glad to say that our high school at present is being very efficiently directed by its headmaster.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation of the way in which members of the school board all the teachers have cooperated with the superintendent in working upon measures which it is hoped will prove of future benefit to the educational interest of the town.

Respectfully submitted,

H. H. Pratt.

Headmaster's Report

At the suggestion of Superintendent H. H. Pratt I will make a brief statement of conditions affecting the high school.

We have now three rooms. A convenient room has been finished in the basement for the commercial work. Desks were provided this year. There are now four typewriters and a mimeograph. It is difficult to keep the typewriters in repair and usually several are out of commission. More blackboard space is needed.

The domestic science room has equipment sufficient to prepare a meal and feed a dozen people at once. This has often been done. There are two two-burner oil stoves, a sewing machine and running water. There should be a wet sink.

The apparatus for physics and chemistry is now complete. Last summer a cupboard was built for the physical apparatus. As this material represents an investment of over a hundred dollars, it ought to be carefully housed. The expense for apparatus this year will be nominal.

The class of 1922 purchased a large bust of Lincoln as a gift to the school. We hope soon to have a bust of Washington and of Webster.

The enrollment last year was forty-nine. This year it has already reached fifty. The main room was enlarged last summer by moving partition six feet. This relieves the pressure for a space for the present. It adds, however, to the difficulty of heating.

The high school program is practically made for us at Concord. With the limits they set for us we have twenty-four recitation periods a day. These are all full and I am obliged to have two classes at a time in one period. For this reason we have discontinued the domestic science classes in the grades. It is useless to think of having an additional teacher as there is no room. It may be necessary to give up the domestic science work for the present.

Strict watch is kept at Concord over our absent and tardy marks. If the number of these become too great we may be penalized.

I hope you will spare no pains in helping us to keep the absent and tardy marks at the minimum. Our average attendance last year was 94. This happens to be exactly the same as that of the whole State. We ought to do better this year.

I take this opportunity to say that I appreciate the loyalty of the town to the best interests of its schools and to express my gratitude for the many acts and words of helpfulness that we have received.

C. W. WILLEY, Headmaster.
